Born in 2000 and raised in the culturally rich society of Indonesia, Lauryn Vania Kurniawan, writes music for films, animations and ensembles, seeking to combine the best of music and cinema with her own expressivity and imagination. A classical trained pianist from the age of five, she is regularly in demand as a collaborative pianist for a wide variety of musics, from the baroque to world premieres. Her work for film, animation, and sound design has already won recognition internationally. Lauryn is currently in her third year of study in the Hong Kong Baptist University with a full scholarship from HKSAR Belt and Road Indonesia. She is a music major concentrating in composition and minoring in film.
